Epilog

The topic of the second edition of our journal Zhishan 止善 is “Music and Culture.” In addition to two invited contributions, there are eleven papers from both Taiwan and abroad, including Austria, Republic of Serbia, Republic of South Africa, the United States of America and Islamic Republic of Iran. Out of twelve papers that were presented during the conference on “Interdisciplinary Conference on ‘Guqin, Aesthetics and Humanism’” on April 20th 2007, eight were later submitted to this journal. The overall number of papers, submitted was twenty two (which includes three papers on general topics not related to the theme and events mentioned above). Nine papers were chosen for publication for the present issue, which amount to an acceptance rate of 40.91% (9/22). Including the two invited contributions, a total of eleven papers are published here. Every issue of this journal is printed out five hundred copies.

Apart from the two invited contributions, all papers have undergone a blind peer-review process with reviewers from different institutions. Apart from the members of the editorial board, a total of thirty three experts were involved in the review process, including one chair professor, ten professors, five associate professors, fourteen assistant professors and two senior lecturers. They hold positions at Chinese Culture University, Central Taiwan University of Science and Technology, Wenzao Ursuline College of Languages, Hungkuang University, Soochow University, Tunghai University, NanHua University, National Central University, National Chung Cheng University, National Chiao Tung University, National Chengchi University, PingTung University of Education, Taipei National University of the Arts, Tainan National University of the Arts, National Taiwan University, Feng Chia University, Tamkang University, Ching Yun University, Chaoyang University of Technology, I-Shou University, Providence University, and the Berlin technical University. We wish to express our gratitude to these colleges for their precious time and careful evaluation.

This journal has a well-established academic reputation. We hope this journal can make substantial contribution to the further development of general education. We are looking to criticism and comments of any kind.
